WETNESS AT NEW ORLEANS

LONG CONTINUED SPOILS THE TRACK AND BRINGS DISCOMFORT.

Chief Hayes Captures the Main Race at the Fair Grounds—Debar Scores Easily—Goldquest Inflicts a Surprise.

New Orleans, La., January 6.—A more dreary day for racing could not well be imagined. Rain, accompanied by a cold wind, swept through the misfit grandstand, forcing the handful of spectators to seek shelter in the topmost part of the structure, and even there the rain penetrated and forced all to keep on the move. The track was in a wretched condition and full of holes, many of the starters stumbling repeatedly, and in the opener Saltram fell. It was natural that upsets should be frequent under the existing conditions. Only one favorite managed to win.

The handicap at six furlongs was the feature offering, and it furnished the chief race of the day. Chief Hayes, smartly backed, winning it by a hard drive from Higginbotham, with Platoon in third place. Jacobite, under the steady impost of 137 pounds, was made the choice, and he kept pace with the early leaders to the last furlong, where the weight told and he gave way to the lightweights.

Debar showed a return to good form when he spread-eagled the others in the second race and won as his rider pleased from the extreme outsider, Prince of Pless. Barney Schreiber's colors were first under the wire in two races. In the opening race his Banrila was favorite and led the others for the entire trip. Salmesaw, the choice in the third race, also carried his colors, but succumbed in the last furlong to Third Rail, while the closing race went to his Donna, which showed a liking for the going and won with plenty in reserve.

Goldquest, at a long price, showed sudden improvement and ran away from his opponents after attempting to run out on the stretch turn.

Jockey V. Powers carried off the riding honors by piloting three of the winners. Jockey J. Lee also showed skill by bringing Goldquest and Chief Hayes home winners.

John J. Ryan's announced intention to depart tonight for his home in Cincinnati, did not come as a surprise. The general inference is that he was requested to leave. It is known that the executive committee of both tracks met in session yesterday for the purpose of discussing Ryan and the many rumors connecting him with methods detrimental to the best interests of racing here. What decision the executive committees jointly arrived at is unknown, and they steadfastly, for the present, refuse to commit themselves as to what transpired. On the other hand friends of Ryan contend that no official action was taken against him and that his trip to Cincinnati at this time is for the purpose of being in attendance at the trial brought about by the suit for damages which Dan Murphy instituted against Ryan some time ago and which will begin there Wednesday next. Both books that Ryan is said to be interested in discontinued operations this afternoon and will not resume, at least, during the Fair Grounds' two weeks of racing. Ryan, before departing, volunteered the information that he would return here next week.

Barney "Kid" Weller, returned from New York yesterday and resumed booking this afternoon.

John W. Gates, accompanied by his son Charles, is expected here from Texas tomorrow and will remain for several days.

P. King has decided to ship Ray Thompson to his home in Dallas, Texas. The recent ruling barring the youngster from starting on any but fast tracks, caused King to decide to ship him home.

Although the ruling against jockey Delaby expired with the termination of the second week's racing at City Park, it is understood that his suspension will continue until the judges give him permission to resume riding.

Jockey Mountain did not depart for Chicago Saturday last, as he announced he would, and said today that he would soon resume riding shortly.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

STANLEY FAY MAKES A NEW RECORD.

In Seven Furlong Sprint—Carman Uncovers a Good One—Selling War Continues.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 6.—The racing today was characterized by a number of spicy incidents not the least of which was the flogging of jockey M. Preston $50 for not persevering with Giovanni Barberio in the first race. Preston has been easing up his mounts when he saw he could not win, but was taken severely to task by the judges today, and was plainly told that a repetition of such riding would find him on the ground.

The halter brigade had an inning again today. R. F. Carman taking a hand at the game and taking Baron Escher away from owner W. D. Millard.

W. D. Millard ran up Chippewa from $700 to $1,000, and J. B. Dunn lifted Anoura from $400 to $1,000, both horses being retained by their respective owners.

Starter Dwyer was in the box today and will remain for a month, Holtman having gone to Oakland.

The Arrowed dropped dead after finishing in the first race.

Pretension won the first race after being backed from 4 to 1 down to 8 to 5 at post time, while Toupee, the opening favorite, receded from 8 to 5 to 4 to 1. Toupee led for six and one-half furlongs, where Pretension caught him and easily outstayed him in the final drive. The stable connections, followed by the New York contingent, recouped their losses by the victory of the Oriflamb—Vanity gelding.

Valjean was made a 1 to 3 favorite in the two-year-old race, but Copper Princess, from the Carman stable, showed her heels to the Hildreth colt throughout the running and was never menaced at any stage of the race. Live Oak was her nearest contender to the stretch, where Valjean moved up and finished an easy second.

Chippewa won the mile race in fast time after being reserved close behind Progress, the pacemaker, to the last sixteenth, where he came with a rush to win by a length.

SUGGESTED DATE SCHEDULE.

At the postponed meeting of the representatives of the several New York tracks which was held at the Windsor Arcade in New York City last Friday, a tentative schedule of dates for meetings at different metropolitan tracks is rumored to have been decided upon as follows:

Aqueduct—April 15 to 23.
Jamaica—April 24 to May 4.
Belmont Park—May 5 to 22.
Gravesend—May 23 to June 10.
Sheepshead Bay—June 11 to 27.
Brighton Beach—June 28 to July 21.
Saratoga—July 22 to August 12.
Empire City—August 13 to 20.
Sheepshead Bay—August 21 to September 5.
Gravesend—September 6 to 19.
Brighton Beach—September 20 to 26.
Belmont Park—September 27 to October 10.
Jamaica—October 11 to 23.
Aqueduct—October 24 to November 6.
Empire City—November 7 to 14.

The meeting was attended by representatives of all the tracks in the state with the exception of the Empire City track. Mr. Butler was out of the city and did not delegate any one to represent him at the meeting. The dates as suggested gives the Coney Island Jockey Club, Brooklyn Jockey Club and the Westchester Racing Association each twenty-eight days, Brighton Beach Racing Association twenty-six days, the Queens County Jockey Club, Metropolitan Jockey Club and Empire City Trotting Association each twenty days, and the Saratoga Association nineteen days, thirteen of which are free of competition from the Empire City track.

The division of time for the early spring meetings at Gravesend and Belmont Park will be left for those two associations to decide for themselves. The racing dates named are said to have been assigned to the two tracks, but it has not been decided whether or not there will be split meetings as there were last year.

The necessary surrender of racing days by all of the tracks save Empire City would make some slight changes in the list of spring stakes formerly run, and some of the minor ones might be declared off.

It was the sense of the meeting to do as well by the Saratoga Association and Empire City tracks as it was possible to do. The fact that the New York race-goer wants racing in August was also recognized, and New York would under the suggested plan only be without racing within easy reach for thirteen days this year.

Giving the last week of the season to Empire City is commended on all sides in that it is believed that racing at that track will be much more pleasant in weather than at any of the Long Island courses.

AND HE WOULD RIDE.

A Belmont Park trainer recently received a long missive from a man who should have a guardian, says the New York Telegraph. His age is forty-one years, occupation, decorator, and weight, 119 pounds. He explained that if accepted the owner and public would be assured of an honest ride, for he could give references to that effect.

He enclosed his photograph, which was taken in Vienna, and his appearance in silks astride one of our thoroughbreds can easily be imagined, for he not only wears glasses, but his face is adorned with a set of whiskers that would rival those of good old "Doc" Streett.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION'S REPORT.

Makes Its First Report to the Legislature and Shows Beneficial Action.

Lexington, Ky., January 6.—The first biennial report of the State Racing Commission to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky will be submitted to the members of the legislature when that body convenes in Frankfort tomorrow morning by Secretary Arthur B. Rouse.

The report is printed and bound and contains 159 pages. It opens with the following address: "The State Racing Commission, as required by the act of 1906 and approved by the governor, March 23, 1906, submits to your honorable body its first biennial report. The enactment of the law creating the commission by the legislature of 1906, is the first step taken by the Commonwealth for the protection of the great thoroughbred horse interests of the state and for the control of the race tracks incorporated within its jurisdiction."

"At the first meeting of the commission after its organization, which was held on the 23d day of April, 1906, the race tracks incorporated within the state filed their applications for license and racing dates."

"The New Louisville Jockey Club (Churchill Downs), which had for thirty-three years held a spring race meeting, was granted racing dates to conform to their advertised program for twenty-four days, to extend from the second day of May to the twenty-ninth day of May, inclusive. The Latonia Jockey Club was granted thirty-one days' racing, to extend from the thirtieth day of May to the fourth day of July, inclusive. The Douglas Park Jockey Club, which had been recently incorporated and its track at the time being remodeled, and which would not have been prepared to conduct a race meeting had the dates been granted, made an application for thirty-two days' racing, to extend from the twelfth day of May to the fifteenth day of June."

"The application for said dates was refused by the commission on the grounds that the dates asked for had been previously assigned and thereby preventing a conflict of racing dates within the state, one of the primary objects which prompted the legislature to enact the law creating the commission."

"The Douglas Park Jockey Club, on the fifteenth day of May, 1906, filed in the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Kentucky, a suit praying that the commission be enjoined and testing the constitutionality of the act on the ground that it was in violation of the tenth section of the first article of the federal constitution and the fourteenth amendment thereto. The lower court decided adversely to the commission and an appeal was taken to the United States Court of Appeals and said court reversed the decision of the lower court in an opinion delivered by Judge A. M. J. Cochran."

Then follows the opinion of Judge Cochran in full, and the report continues: "The progress of the commission was impeded during the year of 1906 by the filing of said suit, and during the pendency of the suit certain racing dates were granted to the tracks upon their application, which would have been curtailed had the commission not been enjoined, and during the year a total of 174 days was granted."

"At the first meeting of the commission held in 1907, as of date February 8, 1907, the following resolution was adopted: 'That it is the sense of the commission that there was too much racing in Kentucky during the year 1906, and for the best interests of racing the dates should be reduced along certain lines,' and during the year 110 racing dates were granted upon proper application from the tracks."

"The fall dates granted the New Louisville Jockey Club from October 16 to November 2, were relinquished on account of the position taken by the sheriff of Jefferson County, and the president of the New Louisville Jockey Club requested the commission to transfer said dates to the Latonia Jockey Club, which was done, with the understanding that the program as published by the New Louisville Jockey Club would be followed, and the number of days granted for the year was not increased thereby."

"During the years 1906 and 1907 the amount of money as distributed in stakes and purses to the breeders, owners and trainers of thoroughbreds by the four tracks licensed by the commission, amounted in the aggregate to nearly $1,000,000."

Following this is a display of the amount of money distributed by tracks and by meetings, and then comes an endorsement of the Kentucky Breeding Bureau, showing the great advantages of that organization, and presenting the fact that the twenty-seven stallions in the bureau last spring served 1,325 mares, the majority of which will foal on the farms of their owners next spring, thus at practically no cost to the owners of the mares improving the breed of their stock.

Next comes a chapter on the sales, in which it is shown that the Fasig-Tipton Company alone "sold in 1906 from the State of Kentucky, thoroughbred horses amounting to $832,830, and in the year 1907, the sales amounted to $533,360, making a total for the two years of $1,366,190. This statement does not include the private sales made in the state, or sales made by other companies than the Fasig-Tipton Company, during the past two years, and we feel perfectly justified in saying that the total amount realized from the sale of thoroughbred horses from and in the State of Kentucky for the years of 1906 and 1907 would exceed one and one-half million dollars."

OFFENDERS WELL PUNISHED

OAKLAND STEWARDS HAND OUT A RULING OFF AND SOME SUSPENSIONS.

Copit a Good Two-Year-Old—Fulletta Reverses with Banposal—Big Store Improves Suddenly.

Oakland, Cal., January 6.—Infant racers disported themselves in the third race at Oakland today. This was the only feature on the card to relieve it from hopeless mediocrity. In its running Adolph Spreckels uncovered a big strapping colt of his own breeding named Copit, which won like a good one. The start, however, favored Copit materially and it was Jake Holtman's one break in a sequence of first-class starts during the afternoon. Bedwell sent his horse, Big Store, to the races today adorned with hood and blinkers, and an amazingly easy victory followed.

Emma G. then unexpectedly materialized after being ridden in a reprehensible manner on the stretch turn by J. Carroll, her jockey.

The fourth race developed a suspicious angle in Borel's ride on Captain Hale. Right on top of this he rode Herodotus to a bad defeat. This was too much for the stewards to endure and they asked Borel to explain. Their conclusions were not made known.

After Fulletta had reversed his previous running with Banposal, the stewards took occasion to suspend jockey E. Lynch, who had ridden Fulletta when Banposal beat him so decisively last Thursday. The crack lightweight rider was also adjudged guilty of recent bad rides on Gemmell and Cloudlight. Race-goers generally place the responsibility of Gemmell and Cloudlight's bad races on their respective trainers.

The stewards were also active in the case of John Street, a colored stable lad who worked for J. F. Clifford. Upon Street's confession of having doped Altair, for which alleged offense Clifford and his horses were recently suspended, they promptly ruled him off the turf. The edict of suspension against Clifford still holds good.

The weather conditions were ideal. Six thousand persons witnessed the races, and thirty-nine bookmakers handled the ring business.

YOUNG SHIPS HORSES TO MEMPHIS.

Lexington, Ky., January 6.—W. J. Young sent to Memphis the following twenty-two horses: The Abbot, Great Pirate, Moquette, Good Friar, Darknight, Wool Sandals, Chulita, Dunvegan, Bill Heron, Caltha and Bonnie Bard, including these two-year-olds:

Direct, ch. c., by Don de Oro—Froken.
Fair Messenger, b. f., by Resolute II.—Kilt.
Isaac, ch. c., by Goldcrest—Hazema.
Prince William, b. c., by Caldron—Princess Lucille.

Queen's Message, ch. f., by Resolute II.—Kilt.
Solicitor, ch. c., by Rensselaer—Emma Pickwick.
Teddy Bear, b. c., by Gold Heels—Helen H. II.
Warfield, ch. c., by Nasturtium—Detection.

Bay colt, by Count Schomberg—Rochelle II.
Bay colt, by Previous—Hannarinda.
Bay filly, by Marta Santa—Maria Louise.

If there is no racing at Hot Springs these horses will be kept at Memphis until the opening of the season at Benning and some will come back to Kentucky for the Lexington, Louisville and Latonia meetings.

Hal Woodford of Bourbon County, returned from New Orleans today to take his seat in the Kentucky legislature at Frankfort tomorrow. He says there is a big attendance and good racing at the Crescent City, and there seems to be plenty of money in circulation. Mr. Woodford does not expect untoward legislation in this state, and says a bill may be introduced to suppress poolrooms.

A rumor is in circulation that the State Racing Commission is contemplating the appointment of a veterinary surgeon, to keep an eye on horses racing on Kentucky tracks, the idea being to stamp out the use of stimulants. The date of the next meeting of the commission is not fixed, but will probably not be held until applications for dates are made, some time in March.

James Hukill is getting Harold D. ready and will soon send him to New Orleans.

Memphis, Tenn., January 6.—W. J. Young's string of twenty-two thoroughbreds from Lexington, Ky., and seven head owned by C. A. Leiman from Champaign, all reached Montgomery Park today, to begin training for the 1908 racing season. The consignments were the first of the new year to reach local tracks.

LATEST ENTRIES TO BIG HANDICAPS.

New York, January 6.—The following are the additions received to the big handicaps:

To the Brooklyn—Sir Huon, Master Robert, Fair Play, Faust, Rifeman, W. H. Carey, Old Honesty, Glorifier, Lad of Langden and Jack Atkin, making a total of forty-five to date.

To the Brighton—Glorifier, Jack Atkin, Dorante and Old Honesty, a total of fifty-three.

To the Suburban—Dorante, Jack Atkin, Lad of Langden, Glorifier and Old Honesty; total to date, fifty-four.

The total to the 1910 Futurity so far is 912 and to the Brighton Produce Stakes 905, with the west still to hear from.

The report concludes, after stating the new rules adopted and new rules proposed during the past year, as follows:

"The commission submits that it has adopted certain rules and regulations and provided safeguards against the occurrence of evils which are generally associated with the turf, and has used every effort to purify racing, resulting in material benefit to one of the leading interests of our state, and placing the sport upon a higher plane than it has ever occupied."

Following this the rules of the commission, properly indexed, are printed in full. The report is signed by the five commissioners. No recommendation of any character is made in the report save this, which appears under the heading "New Rules Proposed": "The poolroom has been one of the greatest factors leading toward the demoralization of racing, and is a menace to the sport, and at the last meeting of the commission the following rule was proposed and will be passed and adopted after thirty days have passed, as required by the laws: 'No racing association licensed by this commission shall furnish to poolrooms or their agents any information whatever in regard to racing, or permit to be furnished from its course any such information.'"

It is noticeable that the rules proposing the licensing of trainers and jockeys, and that prohibiting betting at the tracks, are not mentioned in the report, and it is explained by secretary Rouse that they were omitted for the reason that in the first instance a license was not necessary because of the presence in the field already of four governing bodies in this country, the licenses of which are recognized by the commission, and in the second instance, because the rule severing the betting ring from the control of the associations was faultily drawn.

LOUISVILLE STAKES TO CLOSE.

The Louisville Racing Association's stakes will close for entries February 1, and embrace all of the events long established and well known to all patrons of Churchill Downs. The stakes offered are these:

Kentucky Derby of 1909, three-year-olds, $6,000
 guaranteed; 1 1/4 miles.
 Kentucky Oaks of 1909, three-year-old fillies,
 $3,000 guaranteed; 1 1/16 miles.
 Clark Handicap, three-year-olds and over, $1,500 added; 1 1/16 miles.
 Louisville Handicap, three-year-olds and over,
 $1,250 added; 3/4 mile.
 Bluegrass Stakes, three-year-olds, $1,000 added;
 7/8 mile.
 Frank Fehr Stakes, three-year-olds and over,
 $1,000 added; 1 mile.
 Debutante Stakes, two-year-old fillies, $1,000
 added; 1 1/2 mile.
 Bashford Manor Stakes, two-year-old colts and geldings, $1,000 added; 4 1/2 furlongs.
 Juvenile Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 5/8
 mile.
 Louisville Steeplechase, $1,000 added; about 2 miles.

With only Lexington, Louisville and Latonia to offer western owners opportunities to race their horses in their own section after the close at New Orleans, their duty to nominate liberally to these events is plain. The date for closing is not far away and entries should be sent in promptly to secretary Lyman H. Davis.

RACING MANUAL OF 1908.

The American Racing Manual of 1908, which is to appear about January 22, will be in both paper covers at 50 cents and soft morocco covers at 75 cents. The book will only be sent through the mails as a registered package.

RING OPERATIONS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Ryan and Shaw the Most Prominent Figures—Local Betting Fashions.

New Orleans, La., January 4.—While there has been very little really heavy plucking here this winter, yet the speculation is picking up rapidly and in the last week or ten days considerable big money has shown in the ring. John J. Ryan, of Cincinnati, turfman, get-rich-quick man and theatrical promoter, and T. J. Shaw, the New York bookmaker, are the biggest operators here just now, although recently C. R. Ellison has been trailing in close behind them. The betting broke unluckily for Ellison at the beginning of the season, but latterly he has been getting into his stride and the victories, more especially of his own horses, Jacobite, Temaceo and Grace Larsen, have helped to start him in the winning way again. As to "plunging," in the literal acceptance of the word, there is not now nor never has been much of it down here. The ring does not handle a sufficient amount of money to stand for phenomenal plunges such as might be possible on metropolitan tracks. But one can bet from, say, $500 to $2,500, according to the odds and the probable contention in a race, and even at that gait it requires no extended period of time to either win or lose a bank roll.

Ryan has overcome his predilection for the specu-lar which got him into disfavor around New York a few years ago, when the rosy-hued tinting he attempted to give the local atmosphere out there, and the daily newspaper reports of his betting transactions, were not looked upon in an altogether pleasing light by the Jockey Club, and the intimation was conveyed to him that his absence would be more desirable than his company.
 Down here Ryan is much subdued. He is going along in the quiet even tenor of his way and unless one knew him by sight, his presence about the ring would not be noticed. To date Ryan is away ahead and is said to be by far the biggest winner here.
 He has butted into the ownership end of the sport, chiefly through the selling race route, to an extent that makes it look as though he might have the idea of getting together a powerful stable for next season's racing. He secured possession of the good performers Wes and Miss Ferris out of selling races and also bought from P. M. Civill Dr.
 McCluer, which has developed into the best selling plater here. If Ryan can avoid the publicity, and the disquieting rumor that usually follows racing success, he apparently has the opportunity to speedily become one of the most powerful and prominent owners of the western turf.

Shaw is a native of New Orleans, although much of his life in recent years has been passed in following the thoroughbreds away from here.
 For years he served an apprenticeship as a bookmaker's clerk. At the beginning of the local season last year he was cashier for Barney Schreiber. Shortly after the opening of the season Schreiber went off, and then Shaw, who had accumulated some money, decided to book on his own account. He had a successful season, went to New York, bought a membership in the "Mets," and booked there all season, figuring as one of the leading winners of the season when the curtain was rung down in the fall. Shaw is a tall, dark-complexioned, impressive looking man. He would be noticeable in almost any company. He is a nervy gambler, and when they happen to come his way he wins heavily. He is said to have lost much money in handling Ryan's commissions, or the big end of them, before the holidays, but he is evidently here with the financial wherewithal to stick it out to the end of the season. He is at a disadvantage as compared to such operators as Fontelleu and Cook, who know every angle of the local racing, and, as he lays top prices oftentimes, he gets hooked in bad when the big money shows.

The small fry among the layers of odds have been having a very hard time of it so far this season. The public has been picking the winners with annoying regularity. Besides the fact that many are evidently becoming expert handicappers, under the new system of betting they can nose around, look over the bookmakers' sheets, and thus see at a glance just where the heavy betting is going. And the betting public here are much like a flock of sheep. They follow what they think to be the "wise" money.

The abundance of two and three-year-old races that will help to make up the daily programs from now on will bring new elements into calculation and no doubt the men who lay the odds may have better opportunities in the contest with the public than they have hitherto enjoyed. S. B. Weems.

VETERANS OF THE TRACK AND RING.

Lucien Appleby's Solution of a Famous Case—John Huggins' Career.

New York, January 4.—To the man able to afford it, New York in winter is a fascinating place and in my rounds I frequently run across many old-time sporting men, attending the matinees and evening performances. To judge from the crowded condition of some of the theaters, there is no scarcity of money, yet it is only a few of the plays which have made solid hits.

Two men of some celebrity in racing were at Wallack's recently. They were Lucien Appleby and his one-time partner, Mattie Looman. When bookmaking on the races was at its height here, these men made fortunes. Looman has now withdrawn, devotes himself to the education of a large family and attends more strictly than ever to Wall street, for which he has always had a penchant.
 Because he was a creditor of A. H. Lamar, an operator well known on the tracks, Mr. Looman was forced against his will to become the owner of that erstwhile good filly, Whimsical, which, in the hands of "Tim" Gaynor, was a high-class two-year-old and up to a certain time a good three-year-old. But it was alleged that she was neglected and in the summer of 1906 she was turned over to another trainer. Frank Weir, noted for his ability to "nurture" horses back to form, could do nothing with Whimsical, however.

To the horseman she gave undoubted evidence of having turned "sour" and when she ran her first race early in the year 1907 at Jamaica, her condition was pitiable. Her action was like a cat "treading on hot bricks," and after that exhibition she made as many hostile critics as she had made friends when a two-year-old.

Few men so long in any given profession look so little the worse for wear as does Mr. Appleby.
 For more than forty years he has been a prominent figure in the racing world. His acquaintance with every turfman of influence has been notable ever since the early days at Jerome Park. There never was a dispute involving wagers that Appleby was not consulted by D. D. Withers and men of that class. With the first August Belmont, Lucien Appleby was especially popular. It was he who was chosen by Mr. Belmont to purchase George Oyster and Raceland about the year 1887, when the founder of the original Nursery Stud on Long Island made up his mind to take another whirl at the great game. The most able trainers of the day were always to be seen in converse with the veteran sporting man. No more intimate acquaintance of John Huggins exists today than Appleby.

 This friendship began away back in the old days, when Huggins first came to Saratoga and trained Bend Or (the American horse of that name).

When the late A. J. Cassatt changed his trainer from young Pryor, Huggins succeeded to the command, and this was due to some extent to Apple-by's recommendations. That the arrangement was equally satisfactory to both employer and employee is a matter of history. "Whenever Mr.
 Cassatt comes back to the turf, I expect to train for him," said Huggins to me many times, "and all my engagements have been made with that reservation." Mr. Cassatt never came back and Huggins thereby had a chance to train the Derby winner, Volodyovski, which never would have happened but for the fact that Pierre Lorillard in 1896 went to England to race and took the Texan with him. There his career was one long triumph.
 He trained for the confederacy which included Mr. Lorillard, Lord William Beresford and the Duchess of Marlborough (the Dowager, nee Lily Price). This lady was a power on the turf, though that was not generally known. She was fond of racing and for several years the Anglo-American confederacy had many of the best stakes at their mercy. Huggins' career in England reached its zenith when he won the Derby for the late W. C.
 Whitney with Volodyovski and in a year or two afterward he came back to America. He wanted to rest, but the importunities of Herman B.
 Duryea were not to be denied and for two years now he has tried to make the famous "green, with white stripes" as notable on the turf as in the days when Irish Lad was making turf history under John Rogers' handling.

Reverting to Mr. Appleby, an instance of how the turf authorities of that day relied upon his advice comes to my mind. On Saturday, June 6, 1891, the Great Eclipse Stakes was run at Morris Park. It was won by Marcus Daly's Tammany, ridden by Miller—George Miller, he whose name recently appeared as the purchaser of Sewell at the Durnell sale in California. Hell Gate (Doggett), Dagonet (Garrison), and Osrie (Tara), ran a dead heat for second place. This was an unheard of thing in this country and the great question then was—how to pay off the bets for second and third places? "Marcus Daly ran three in the race—the winner, Tammany, Sir Mathew and Shellbark. All three were quoted independently in the bookmakers' odds, and Tammany was at 60 to 1, so little was he thought of. The late John A. Morris sent for Mr. Appleby and asked for an opinion to the fairest method. The matter had never come up in America and it required some deliberation. Finally, the undoubtedly fair plan was adopted, and those who held place bets on Hell Gate received one-third the face value of their tickets. This was because the claim of each of those which ran a dead heat for second place was disputed by the others. The decision made a great deal of talk at that time and stands today as a precedent. Those who held show tickets on the horses received two-thirds of the face value.

Briefly commenting upon the mooted question of racing dates, Mr. Appleby, who had large interests in the Monmouth Park and Linden tracks in New Jersey, said that it would be disastrous to racing interests to have a public dispute and that he hoped for a peaceable solution of the matter. J. J. Burke.

 Went to post at 1:50. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving.
 Pretension followed the leaders closely for the first five furlongs, then overhauled and easily outdistanced Toupee, winning with plenty to spare. Toupee set a fast pace nearly throughout, finished gamely under the whip and was much the best of the others. Black Mate ran well and, finishing like a shot, nipped out Giovanni Balerio. The latter ran a fast half, but was tiring badly at the end. Confederate began slowly and closed a big gap. Cloisteress tired as if short after showing speed.

 Went to post at 2:16. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Copper Princess, off flying, displayed great speed and won all the way without being closely approached. Valjean ran well, responded to the whip in the stretch drive and finished gamely. Chilla was always prominent and finished fast. Mattie Russell closed a gap into a fast going fourth. Live Oak showed a high order of speed, but tired near the finish. Traffic and Banrose finished gamely.

Went to post at 2:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Chipewa was saved and not called upon until after entering the stretch, where he came away with a rush, easily holding the others safe. Progress showed much speed and finished gamely under the whip, but had no chance to beat the winner. Blondy ran well and, in a long stretch drive, finished resolutely, but acted crazily at the post. El Cazador showed speed, but fell away when an eighth out. Harry Scott finished fast. The winner, entered for $700, was bid up to $1,100 and bought in.

Time, 2:54, 50, 1:17.
Winner—Ch. g. by George Kessler—Drowsy (trained by H. G. Bedwell).
Went to post at 1:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Big Store, suddenly improved and wearing blinkers, from a striding start ran in close and persistent pursuit of the pacemakers to the last turn, then drew out and won off. Sycamore, the only serious contender, ran well, but tired and is extra good. St. George Jr. ran in prominent contention to midway of the stretch and outstayed the others for third place. Dick Wilson set the early pace, but finally was anchored in the deepest inside going. Manila S. closed a big gap in the last half. Bantam was never dangerous. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.
Scratched—72177 Judge, 102.
Overweights—Big Store, 2 pounds; St. George Jr., 3; Bantam, 4; Dangerous Girl, 2; Queen Alamo, 5.

Winner—B. f. by Cactus II—Luna Minor (trained by W. Doane).
Went to post at 2:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Emma G. maintained a small lead throughout and went to the extreme outside on the last turn, or she would have won further off. Brayvoure ran in the best and was a game second. Billy Myer showed wide on the turn and tired finally. Jack Paine, within striking distance always, saved ground on the turn and finished with a rush. Billy Myer steadily improved his position into a fast going and close up fourth. The others were beaten off and never dangerous. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.
Scratched—72501 Herives, 102.

Time, 2:37.
Winner—Ch. f. by The Judge—Lucille II. (trained by C. W. Carroll).
Went to post at 2:33. Off at once to a straggling start. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Coppit beat the others off and spread them, was the first and best and is a good one and looks it. Seattle, away slowly, closed up steadily and was a game second. Marymar, after nearest pursuit of the flying pacemaker succumbed for second place in the last stride and is promising. Patois, away slowly and shuffled to the rear, closed a big gap in a cracking effort. Ornate finished well. Micalea, anchored in the going, will do well on a fast track.
Scratched—72540 Winnakee, 102; 72540 Mabel Fountain, 102.
Overweights—Seattle, 1 pound.

72596 FOURTH RACE—1-8 Mile. (72029—1:11—3—103.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Ch. g. by Pirate of Penzance—Lady Anderson (trained by W. Reed).
Went to post at 2:56. Off at once to a good start. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Gromoboi, easily best, was forced into the worst going in the first quarter and reserved in the middle run. He drew out on the last turn and won as his rider pleased. Funny Side made the running for seven furlongs and succumbed after a long stretch drive, but was a game second. Captain Hale dropped out on the last turn, then came suddenly and unexpectedly at the end and just failed to get up for second place. Isabelita, hopelessly outpaced for the first half, closed up well in the stretch. Sea Air retired exhausted after going a forward half. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—B. h. by Scorpion—Handmaid II. (trained by G. Forbes).
Went to post at 3:22. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Excitement, after being unexpectedly forward from the start, drew out in the stretch and won off. Belle of Iroquois, from a flying start, led by a wide gap to the stretch, where she tired badly. Paladini, shuffled to the rear early, closed up much ground in the last half. La Rose was ridden into the deepest going early and anchored. Bolman, away poorly, closed a gap. Herodotus was never dangerous. Lampadrome made up ground in the stretch. May Pink, away poorly, loomed up on the last turn, but quit finally. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.
Scratched—72504 Triumphant, 105; 72576 Nappa, 103; 71816 Ed Lilburn, 102.

Winner—Ch. h. by Mithral—Etta (trained by H. W. Hoag).
Went to post at 3:52. Off at once to a bad start. Won driving; second and third the same. Fulletta beat the barrier and, running in close pursuit of Banposal to the stretch, saved ground by a close turn and got up in the last two strides. Banposal went hopelessly wide on the turns and allowed the winner to gain a half dozen lengths, was given a weak finish and was best. Treasure Seeker, away very slowly, trailed hopelessly rearward to the stretch and finished with a rush. Graphite, unexpectedly well up in the early running, tired in the closing drive. Saint Modan retired early.
